Mr. Yinan Hu, chairman and chief executive officer of Fanhua, commented on the financial results of fourth quarter and fiscal year of 2021: "In 2021, China's life insurance industry started off well but ended up on a downward track. There has been a slowdown in the premium growth since the transition to the new critical illness definition framework in the first quarter of 2021, and gross written premiums (GWP) for the year even declined. The resurgences of COVID-19 and tightened regulatory environment clearly played a role, but we believe the major cause lies in the supply side, as neither the quality of insurance products nor the professional capabilities of insurance salespeople can fully meet customer needs."

"Against the backdrop of industry transformation, we see tremendous opportunities despite mounting challenges. In 2022, people reaching the retirement age are expected to grow from 9 million in 2021 to 25 million in China. More than 25 million people are expected to retire in the next 10 years each year starting from 2022, adding up to nearly 300 million people. With China's population aging at an accelerating pace, there is burgeoning demand for elderly care, asset preservation, tax planning and legacy management among soon-to-be retirees. Meanwhile, based on the consumer patterns that have been observed in the mature markets, with the rise of the middle class and the increase in consumers' disposable income, more and more people are shifting their demand for insurance from ensuring basic protection to more comprehensive plans for family-based asset allocation. These evolving consumer demands are driving the next era of strong growth. At the same time, such demands require salespeople to be equipped with higher capabilities and more professional knowledge.

"In response to evolving trends, we began implementing our new strategy of "Professionalization, Digitalization and Open Platform" in full strength in 2021, in an attempt to fully empower and cultivate professional talents and also empower the industry to take full advantage of the great opportunities brought by the rising demand for elderly care and family legacy management. Despite mounting challenges in 2021 faced by the life insurance industry in China, Fanhua still managed to achieve its full year operating income target of over RMB300 million."

"Building on the foundation laid in 2021, we will continue to execute our development strategy with a focus on the following initiatives, among others, (i) tapping into the high-end market by offering referral of insurance trust services, (ii) growing the premium contributions from high-performing sales agents, and (iii) accelerating market exploration of Fanhua's open platform model to empower the industry.

"Our goal is to transform Fanhua into a brand-new, digitalized and specialized company that will demonstrate high growth in the next two years. 2022 will be a year of capacity building, laying the ground work for Fanhua to get back on track for sustained and high profit growth."

Financial Results for the Fourth Quarter of 2021

Total net revenues were RMB802.6 million (US$126.0 million) for the fourth quarter of 2021, representing a decrease of 5.8% from RMB852.0 million for the corresponding period in 2020.

- Net revenues for agency business were RMB672.3 million (US$105.5 million) for the fourth quarter of 2021, representing a decrease of 7.6% from RMB727.5 million for the corresponding period in 2020. In the fourth quarter of 2021, total GWP increased by 8.5% year-over-year to RMB3.2 billion, of which first year premiums grew by 8.1% year-over-year to RMB858.2 million while renewal premiums increased by 8.6% year-over-year to RMB2,338.3 million.
  - u Net revenues for the life insurance business were RMB642.5 million (US$100.8 million) for the fourth quarter of 2021, representing a decrease of 7.9% from RMB697.6 million for the corresponding period in 2020. The decrease was mainly due to changes in product mix, as the net revenues in the fourth quarter of 2020 were mainly derived from critical illness insurance products with longer renewal term and thus higher commission, while the net revenues in the fourth quarter of 2021 were mainly derived from whole life insurance products with shorter renewal term. In the fourth quarter of 2021, total life insurance GWP increased by 8.1% year-over-year to RMB3,109.3 million, of which first year premiums increased by 6.5% year-over-year to RMB771.0 million and renewal premiums increased by 8.6% year-over-year to RMB2,338.3 million.

Net revenues generated from our life insurance business accounted for 80.1% of our total net revenues in the fourth quarter of 2021.

- Net revenues for the P&C insurance business were RMB29.8 million (US$4.7 million) for the fourth quarter of 2021, which remained relatively stable compared with RMB29.9 million for the corresponding period in 2020. Net revenues for the P&C insurance business are mainly derived from commissions for medical insurance, accident insurance, travel insurance and homeowner insurance products facilitated on Baowang (www.baoxian.com). Net revenues generated from the P&C insurance business accounted for 3.7% of our total net revenues in the fourth quarter of 2021.
- Net revenues for the claims adjusting business were RMB130.4 million (US$20.5 million) for the fourth quarter of 2021, representing an increase of 4.7% from RMB124.5 million for the corresponding period in 2020. - U Costs of the life insurance business were RMB411.1 million (US$64.5 million) for the fourth quarter of 2021, representing a decrease of 15.1% from RMB484.3 million for the corresponding period in 2020. The decrease was in line with the decline in net revenues generated from our life insurance business. Costs incurred by the life insurance business accounted for 81.4% of our total commission costs in the fourth quarter of 2021.
- u Costs of the P&C insurance business were RMB19.6 million (US$3.1 million) for the fourth quarter of 2021, representing an increase of 13.3% from RMB17.3 million for the corresponding period in 2020. The costs of the P&C insurance business mainly represent commission costs we incurred for operating Baowang (www.baoxian.com). The increase in the costs of P&C insurance business was mainly due to increases in our payroll as we recruited more employees at our call center. Costs incurred by the P&C insurance business accounted for 3.9% of our total commission costs in the fourth quarter of 2021.
- Costs of claims adjusting business were RMB74.2 million (US$11.6 million) for the fourth quarter of 2021, representing a decrease of 7.5% from RMB80.2 million for the corresponding period in 2020. Costs incurred by the claims adjusting business accounted for 14.7% of our total commission costs in the fourth quarter of 2021.
- Selling expenses were RMB77.1 million (US$12.1 million) for the fourth quarter of 2021, representing a decrease of 1.9% from RMB78.6 million for the corresponding period in 2020. The decrease was due to decreased sales events, partially offset by increased contributions to employees' government-mandated social benefits plans which had a lower base in the same period of 2020 as the government waived certain contributions in 2020 in view of the impact of COVID-19.
- General and administrative expenses were RMB138.3 million (US$21.7 million) for the fourth quarter of 2021, representing an increase of 15.6% from RMB119.6 million for the corresponding period in 2020. The increase was mainly due to increased expenditures for execution of the Professionalization, Digitalization and Open Platform strategy and increased contributions to employees' government-mandated social benefits plans which had a lower base in the same period of last year.

As a result of the foregoing factors, we recorded an operating income of RMB82.3 million (US$12.9 million) for the fourth quarter of 2021, representing an increase of 14.6% from RMB71.9 million for the corresponding period in 2020.

The investment income in the fourth quarter of 2021 consisted of yields from short-term investments in financial products.

Income tax expense was RMB32.7 million (US$5.1 million) for the fourth quarter of 2021, representing an increase of 142.2% from RMB13.5 million for the corresponding period in 2020. The effective tax rate for the fourth quarter of 2021 was 32.5% compared with 20.7% for the corresponding period in 2020. The increase in effective tax rate was mainly due to accrual of other tax liabilities related to certain transfer pricing arrangements and decreased exemption from income tax for investment income derived from certain fund product in the fourth quarter of 2020.

Share of loss and impairment of affiliates was RMB49.4 million (US$7.8 million) for the fourth quarter of 2021, compared to RMB4.2 million for the corresponding period in 2020. - As of December 31, 2021, Fanhua had 284,053 sales agents and 2,156 professional claims adjusters, compared with 362,580 sales agents and 1,736 professional claims adjusters as of December 31, 2020. The decrease in the number of sales agents was mainly due to our efforts to streamline sales force and focus more on high-performing sales agents. The number of performing agents was 111,602 in 2021, compared to 222,203 in 2020 and the number of performing agents for selling life insurance products was 53,322 in 2021, compared to 80,768 in 2020. The decrease in the number of performing agents for selling life insurance products was mainly due to the continued weakened demand for critical illness insurance products post the transition to the new critical illness definition framework in the first quarter of 2021. As of December 31, 2021, Fanhua's distribution network consisted of 771 sales outlets in 23 provinces and 109 services outlets in 31 provinces, compared with 763 sales outlets in 23 provinces and 118 service outlets in 31 provinces as of December 31, 2020.
- According to the list of "Outstanding Cases of Digital Transformation of China's Insurance Industry in 2021" published by China Banking and Insurance News in December, 2021, Fanhua's case of "WeCom-based Insurance Digital Marketing Program" was selected as one of the "Outstanding Digital Marketing Cases in 2021" and included in the China Insurance Informatization Cases in 2021 published by China Financial Publishing House.
- In January 2022, Fanhua won the "Innovative Insurance Intermediary of the Year" award in the second "China Insurance White Elephant List" sponsored by Insurance Today, a magazine generally regarded as a prominent publication in the insurance industry.

About Non-GAAP Financial Measures

In addition to the Company's consolidated financial results under generally accepted accounting principles in the United States ("GAAP"), the Company also provides non-GAAP net income attributable to the Company's shareholders, non-GAAP net margin and non-GAAP basic and diluted net income per ADS, all of which are non-GAAP financial measures, as supplemental measures to review and assess operating performance. Non-GAAP net income attributable to the Company's shareholders before impairment on investment in an affiliate. Non-GAAP net margin is defined as non-GAAP net income attributable to the Company's shareholders<sup>3</sup> as a percentage of net revenues. Non-GAAP basic net income per ADS is defined as non-GAAP net income attributable to the Company's shareholders divided by total weighted average number of ADSs of the Company outstanding during the period. Non-GAAP diluted net income per ADS is defined as non-GAAP net income attributable to the Company's shareholders divided by total weighted average number of diluted ADSs of the Company outstanding during the period. The Company believes that both management and investors benefit from referring to these non-GAAP financial measures in assessing the Company's performance and when planning and forecasting future periods.

The Company's non-GAAP financial measures do not reflect all items of income and expenses that affect the Company's operations. Specifically, the Company's non-GAAP measures exclude impairment on investment in an affiliate. Further, these non-GAAP financial measures may not be comparable to similarly titled measures presented by other companies, including peer companies. The presentation of these non-GAAP financial measures has limitations as analytical tools, and investors should not consider them in isolation from, or as a substitute for analysis of, the financial information prepared and presented in accordance with GAAP. We encourage investors and other interested persons to review our financial information in its entirety and not rely on a single financial measure. For more information on these non-GAAP financial measures, please see the tables captioned "Reconciliations of GAAP Financial Measures" set forth at the end of this press release.
